

This image shows a vertical strip of a document page. On the left side, there is a dark, textured binding or edge. The main part of the strip is white, representing the page. Faint, illegible text is visible across the page, appearing as light gray smudges. Near the bottom of the strip, there is a small, dark, triangular mark or artifact.

Oxford County Advertiser.

MARCHING THROUGH GEORGIA
As fugitives from a Confederate prison war, by Alfred R. Calhoun. Now running in this paper.

How is Your Account?

Is your paper paid for? Look at the address label. That will show you. If it is marked "June 20," that means that you are in arrears since June 1, 1890, while "Oct 20" means that you are in arrears since Oct. 20, 1890. See it at the address label of your paper is right.

Those in arrears are urged to request to settle up. We need the paper and ought to have it. Why not attend to it?

WEST FRYEBURG.

At the adjourned meeting of farmers held at Fryeburg town house, Oct. 31st, the committee reported in favor of asking 25 cts. per can of 25 ounces. The report was unanimously adopted and papers were drawn up and signed. Nothing at all to connect for less than that sum. Sub-committees were asked to canvass the localities adjoining for signatures, and it was voted that five hundred copies of the by-laws be printed and sent to growers in sections interested in growing sugar corn. The law is now in motion and it is not proposed to stop until something is accomplished.

At the annual meeting of the West Oxford Agricultural Society held Oct. 30th, the following officers were elected: President, C. H. Walker; Vice Pres., W. H. Jones; Sec., E. W. McKee; Treas., W. R. Jones; At-Large, E. W. McKee; A. R. Jones; John West, Fryeburg; Joseph Wiley, S. J. Jones; Lovell; S. L. Jones; Wm. Plummer, S. J. Jones; W. C. Jones; Hiram; W. H. Wakefield; Brownfield; H. Jones; Foster; John Colby, Denmark. The report of the treasurer showed the receipts from the last exhibition to be $2,400.00 and the expenses to be $1,673.50 which included the building of new house sheds and other improvements. It was voted to instruct the treasurer to pay $500.00 to the society's note.

C. H. Walker starts next Friday for Scotland where he goes as a delegate to the farmers National Congress.

DENMARK.

Volney B. Cushing gave a temperance lecture the 27th, subject, "The saloon in our country." Mr. Cushing is a fine speaker and showed up the great evil and the influence of the saloon upon society.

School in dist. No. 7, commenced Nov. 2nd, Emma Ingalls teacher.

The bob-tail that L. R. Giles was turned out to be a puppy cat. L. R. is a poor judge of cats.

C. R. Bennett is home from Boston for a few days.

Apples are mostly sold. Very cheap. Samuel H. Colby sold his oxen for $150 to John Thomas.

GILEAD.

A. W. Whitman has gone to Gorham to accept a position as telegraph operator where he receives better pay and fewer hours work.

Mrs. D. O. Bennett had a tumor removed from her side Oct. 20th. Operation performed by Dr. Hill of Bethel and William of Gorham. As present writing she is doing well.

Jennie Lury who has been living the past year at Mrs. H. C. Lark's, has returned with her sister Mrs. A. M. Whitman.

Eva Harriman is at Mrs. E. R. Gammon's.

Rev. E. S. Mahan's baby is quite poorly.

Fred Harriman is having a hard cold. Mrs. Edson Lark and daughters who have been stopping in New York for the past two months returned home Saturday.

EAST WATERFORD.

Mrs. Nancy Crawford and her two children of Foxfield, are visiting her brother, Abraham Norwood.

Horace Allen gave a party at his place last Saturday night.

S. W. York has gone to New York to work for Haskell & Wolfe this winter.

G. R. Ames is having the foundation for the steam mill which he intends to build in the spring.

Olivia Martin is helping T. Haskell in his elder mill at South Waterford.

Horace Allan has sold his cow and cow to E. G. Hill.

A. C. Peen is home from Mass.

Lawellon Miller has moved to the Flat on the O. G. Godwin place.

NORTH NORWAY.

School in district No. 12 began Nov. 3, taught by Elton J. Judkins.

Helen Field and wife went to Milan, N. H., to visit relatives Oct. 20th.

The young ladies and gents from Norway Corner, who have been camping near Foxpond in Waterford, have returned home.

Mary A. Shedd has returned from Lewiston, where she has been stopping for several weeks.

NORTH NEWRY.

Mrs. T. S. Little has returned from Bethel Falls, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Stearns, for the past two weeks.

George Emery and Samuel Ramesey shot a bear on Foxpond Saturday night, not a very large one and quite poor.

Mrs. L. W. Kilgore has returned from a visit to E. W. McKee's, and an absence of about two weeks.

G. M. Bartlett and Cora Mae Varney were united in marriage at the home of the bridegroom, Foxpond Hotel, by the Rev. A. R. Bryant, Oct. 21. We wish them a long life of happiness and prosperity.

R. E. Powers is about to move on to the Uncle Elijah Powers farm. Perhaps a word about this farm might be of a little interest. It was settled by his grandfather in 1801 and has always retained the name of Powers since.

C. E. Bartlett has just sold a fine horse to Walter West of Errol, N. H.

NORTH WEST NEWRY.

Fred Chapman is at work for Herman Skilling.

We hear that Marion Chapman will soon go to New York to attend school.

John Yates has finished work for M. Penley and gone home.

John Rollins got severely hurt while at work on the Bowdoin Island last week. Eliza Martin has been keeping much rats this fall and has caught a number of the ones, but two of her traps disappeared and she gave up the business. Any one who will steal traps from a little girl would steal a step to the better land. But Peter will get a dinner ahead and the pass won't take him in.

NORWAY CENTER.

Our next election will meet with Mrs. H. C. O. Taylor, Nov. 11th, at M. A. Hill is cordially invited.

Fred Foster has put him up another fine house.

S. A. Holt is making quite extensive improvements on his farm.

Apple buyers are plenty of late and many have sold their apples at a much lower figure than last year.

We had some pretty cold nights last week. Too formed in some places nearly an inch thick.

NORTH LOVELL.

Mrs. Frank Heath of Fryeburg, Iowa, formerly Frank Robb of this town, came to H. W. Palmer's Wednesday night, and not finding them at home she went to Mrs. Heath's. Mrs. Heath has been absent ten years last June.

There were about one hundred at the Harvest supper Friday evening.

Rene Hatch is at home for a short time.

Virgil McAllister is doing working for S. L. Harriman at Chatham.

Mrs. and Mrs. H. W. Palmer have visited at Bethel the past week.

C. W. Palmer and family of Norway, also a Mr. Edwards of Haverhill, Mass., were in this vicinity Wednesday night. Mr. Palmer and Mr. Edwards went deer hunting one day but failed to see one.

Click at Mrs. B. E. McKee's Nov. 10.

Mrs. Dugan and family have moved in to the Stephen Coffin house.

Frank Andrews has gone to Mass. to work.

Wm. Vance has moved into the house formerly owned by G. K. Hamblen.

Happy Charlie has been telling fortunes.

C. A. Kimball and wife went to Norway Saturday.

FRYEBURG.

Grace Morgan is in Portland for a few weeks.

Mrs. Hordson from Ossipee spent Sunday in town.

Annie Osgood and Mrs. Cousins spent Sunday in Hildgton.

Woe! Woe! Woe! to all the boys who were on Saturday night.

S. Cummings from Norway recently visited his sister, Mrs. C. H. Tibbets on Main street.

Mrs. Wiggins and family have left for their home in Mass., after spending a few months at the Fryeburg House.

Rachel Weston entertained a number of her young lady friends at her home on Main street last Saturday evening.

Alfred H. Jones, formerly of Fryeburg, and Lena Howe was the lucky one who received the "ring in the lake."

Mr. Henderson, from Charlestown, Mass., who has been boarding at the Fryeburg House, returned last week.

Sue Walker closed her school at Mt. Tom last Saturday.

ENDOVER.
Wm. Learned has his new house quite well along.

H. H. Abbott is building a place on the H. H. Abbott place.

Burglaries have been quite numerous in this town of late. Last Saturday night a number of burglaries were committed in the town of late.

The breaking in of S. W. Botwell's barn and taking therefrom twenty heads of sheep, was reported by Mr. Botwell to the police.

Mr. Botwell is a man in Andover has come to perform such an act. It is there the sooner he is brought to justice the better.

DICKVILLE.
The religious services held by Mr. Sawyer of Boston, are being well attended.

Reuben Andrews has returned to Lewiston.

Among those making improvements about one acre and a half at Wing, who has built a wood shed; Ira B. Wink, Jr., has expanded his house; (Grandville) has had his house painted; and John H. Jones, has had his house painted.

John H. Jones, has had his house painted and is doing a ditch 10 rods in length to bring the water to his house and barn.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

WEST MINSTER.

Harlie Bisbee, son of Dr. Bisbee, is to teach school in Hartford Center this winter.

E. G. Doble has been granted a pension and one year's back pay.

There was an apple bee one evening last week at Charlie Harty's when 15 bushels of apples were dressed, after which all did ample justice to a baked bean supper.

Mrs. W. Ryerson returned home Nov. 1st, having been at Norway caring for Mrs. L. B. Andrews, who was sick there, and we are pleased to report her home and returned to her home at West Minster.

Rachel Weston entertained a number of her young lady friends at her home on Main street last Saturday evening.

Alfred H. Jones, formerly of Fryeburg, and Lena Howe was the lucky one who received the "ring in the lake."

Mr. Henderson, from Charlestown, Mass., who has been boarding at the Fryeburg House, returned last week.

Sue Walker closed her school at Mt. Tom last Saturday.

ENDOVER.
Wm. Learned has his new house quite well along.

H. H. Abbott is building a place on the H. H. Abbott place.

Burglaries have been quite numerous in this town of late. Last Saturday night a number of burglaries were committed in the town of late.

The breaking in of S. W. Botwell's barn and taking therefrom twenty heads of sheep, was reported by Mr. Botwell to the police.

Mr. Botwell is a man in Andover has come to perform such an act. It is there the sooner he is brought to justice the better.

DICKVILLE.
The religious services held by Mr. Sawyer of Boston, are being well attended.

Reuben Andrews has returned to Lewiston.

Among those making improvements about one acre and a half at Wing, who has built a wood shed; Ira B. Wink, Jr., has expanded his house; (Grandville) has had his house painted; and John H. Jones, has had his house painted.

John H. Jones, has had his house painted and is doing a ditch 10 rods in length to bring the water to his house and barn.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

Mr. Jones is building a house for his son, John H. Jones, who is a student at the University of Maine.

HIGHEST OF ALL IN LEAVING POWER.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

MAINE.

Summer Whitney has made extensive repairs on his saw mill and is now building on addition.

Will Haskell had nice green beans and cucumbers for dinner Oct. 18th from his garden.

The machinery on the second floor of the Ellingwood Mfg. is completed and running. Both rooms are doing a good business with orders ahead.

Fred Leonard is at work for Summer Whitney.

Gertie Bailey, our postmistress, seems doing a good business in her fancy goods department at the P. O.

The furniture of our hair salon are shipping large quantities of apples to the markets.

On Saturday the children were frolicking day and evening on the streets as though summer had come.

Mrs. M. Oliver was very poorly on Friday last week but at this writing seems convalescent.

We notice that M. Jordan and son are preparing the addition to their new store in the early fall. We presume it means good shop

CUT THIS OUT — BRING IT TO
Wm. C. Leavitt's,
(40 Main Street, Norway, Maine,
If in want of anything in his line and see what it is worth.
[From the Oxford County Advertiser.]

NOW IS THE TIME WHEN
T. L. Webb's Blue Store
 — IS OFFERING —
THE GREATEST BARGAINS
 — IN —
READY-MADE CLOTHING

The young people here attended a party at Dr. E. H. Smith's one evening last week.

Mrs. J. L. Heath recently went to Lowell.

Gertrude and Bertha Bennett have returned to Dallas.

Mrs. E. J. Maiss was at Oxford to attend the funeral of her father, Mr. Frost, last week.

Miss Jackson was here with her sister a few days last week.

Mrs. W. M. Brown's sister, Mrs. T. Mason is keeping house, in Albany this fall.

A. B. Grover has a handsome pair of steers.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

WHEREAS, The Master of the Great Gospel above having seen fit, in His divine providence, to remove from this world our beloved and sister, Mrs. Arvilla Blake, therefore, be it Resolved, That we, the members of this church, sustain the loss of a sister who was ever a true and devoted Christian.

There was no Christian Endeavor meeting Wednesday evening. There was no one to open the church.

AND Repair Work
- DONE AT -
W. HILLS,
- - - Maine.

THE LAUNDRY.

JSSSELS

SOAP.

